

Resources for Spotting and Countering Human Trafficking in Higher Education

Center for Countering Human Trafficking communication/awareness channels:

- Agency Website: Center for Countering Human Trafficking
- Initiative Micro-Website: Blue Campaign
- Social Media
 - DHS Center for Countering Human Trafficking LinkedIn
 - <https://www.facebook.com/dhsbluecampaign>
 - <https://www.instagram.com/dhsbluecampaign>
- Newsletter Sign-Up: U.S. Department of Homeland Security Gov Delivery

How to Request Materials/Training:

- New Public Request: Request Blue Campaign Materials
- Topic Specific Items (e.g. toolkits for educators, healthcare providers): contact adam.sorelle@hsi.dhs.gov
- Additional Training Request: Training and Outreach Request Form

Reporting Information:

Reporting Concerns	Helping Victims
Report Suspected Human Trafficking Call 1-866-347-2423 You can report suspicions of human trafficking to federal law enforcement. Our tip line runs 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, every day of the year. Tip Line staff has highly trained specialists to take reports from both the public and law enforcement agencies on more than 400 federal statutes, including those related to human trafficking and reporting abuse of Unaccompanied Alien Children (UAC). The Tip Line is accessible outside the United States by calling 802-872-6199.	To Receive Support Contact the National Human Trafficking Hotline (NHTH) Call 1-888-373-7888 or Text HELP to BeFree (233733). The NHTH can help connect victims and survivors with service providers in the area and provides training and technical assistance. The NHTH is a national, toll-free hotline available to answer calls from anywhere in the country, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, every day of the year. The NHTH is not a law enforcement and is operated by a nongovernmental organization funded by the Federal government

Continued Presence Information: The Continued Presence (CP) Program is a temporary immigration designation for individuals identified as victims of human trafficking who reside in the United States. For more information, please coordinate with a local law enforcement organization who can work with a HSI field office to apply for Continued Presence. You may also contact the Center for Countering Human Trafficking at continuedpresence@ccht.dhs.gov for assistance.